Rose, forgive me for bothering you but remember I am a neophyte at this.... Here is what I am working on so far...I have confirmed all in light blue and just want to affirm again, I am on track (#4 title is set). I thought about the topic of nursing influence on healthcare policy as a timely topic, what do you think and do you have any ideas?

Also, once it is a go, are there author guidelines, etc that I send them or what are next steps along the way? Other than David's interview, is there anything else I am responsible for to make sure it gets done? Thanks for your patience! Best to you! Jackie
